The Long Walk is one of the finest features of the Royal Parks surrounding the historic home of the Sovereigns of England, Windsor Castle. It faces the south front of the Castle and runs thence for about 2 3/4 miles to Snow Hill, whereon is Westmacott's noble equestrian statue of George III. The "Walk" is a magnificent avenue of elms with a spacious carriage drive, constructed in 1710, running down the centre.
